“G20 University Connect” event to be addressed by the Hon'ble Prime Minister" on 26th September 2023 at 4 pm in Bharat Mandapam, New Delhi

Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi addressed the G20 University Connect Finale programme on 26th September 2023 at Bharat Mandapam, New Delhi at about 4 PM.

The G20 Jan Bhagidari movement saw a record participation of more than 5 crore youth from different schools, higher education institutions and skill development institutes from across the country. The G20 University Connect initiative was undertaken with an aim to build the understanding of India's G20 Presidency among India's youth and enhance their participation in the different G20 events. The programme engaged over 1 lakh students from universities across India. Initially planned for 75 universities to commemorate India's 75 years of independence, the initiative eventually expanded its reach to 101 universities across India. Several programmes were held across the country under the G-20 University Connect initiative. They witnessed extensive participation from higher education institutions. The G20 University Connect Finale was attended at the event venue by about 3000 students, faculty members, and Vice Chancellors of the participating Universities. In addition, students from across the country joined the event Live.

As per instructions received from IGNOU New Delhi, Regional Centre Dehradun made arrangement for viewing of the Live Programme through projector screen at the Regional Centre office. All the Officers and staff members watched the programme. More than 10 learners also watched the programme at the Regional Centre. Regional Centre shared information regarding this event through Regional Centre Website and through different social media platforms for wide dissemination of the information. All the LSCs under the Regional Centres were also instructed to watch the event at their place.
